THE COLORED FAIR IN NOVEMBER

annual fair within the Exposition Grounds Livingstone College. and in connection with the same. It is the purpose of the managers to make this the grandest on record, and they will have on exhibition the greatest and finest collection of farm products, mechanism, and machinery, and also fine needle work, chrochet, oil paint ing and drawing and other works of art. We want 50,000 people here to withness this my library grand feature of the exposition and see what the negro is doing in this State.

Come, men, with your wives and your chil dren and let them see this grand fair. Secretary Williamson is daily at his post with his competent corps of assistants arranging the exhibits and making a proper display. People all over the State are requested to send in things at once so that everything can be in readiness by time of the grand opening.

We want to make this Inter-States Southern States Southern Exposition a success. We must do it and don't you forget it. Come, come in great crowds to the colored fair in November.

J. H. Williamson, Secretary, N. C. Coleman, President.

MASS MEETING.

T1 : colored people of Wake county are requested to meet in the Court House in Raleigh on Saturday, the 31st day of October, 1891. The object of the meeting is to elect delegates to the State convention of colored men to be held in Raleigh on November 4. 1891. The hour of meeting will be at 12 STEWART ELLISON, o'clock m.

We believe a fair trial supported by an enforcement of the law against those who violate the prohibition by the sale of liquor, will be found to be greatly for the benefit of these several counties; and if we are not mistaken in this view the example of Rutherford, Cleveland, Gaston, Iredell and Mecklenburg will soon prove to be contagious to their contiguous neighbors.

PREACHING TO NEGROES

The Chronicle has always believed that it was the duty of white ministers of standing and ability to preach to the negroes whenever they had opportunity to do so. We believe that if there had been systematic effort upon the part of the white churches to instruct the negro since the war, there would have been a chese he of viety among the negr es and a etter unaer ding between the races. At e recent session of Holston Conference, shop Galloway spoke of the duty of work-among the negroes and said: Down in Mississippi I preach to the oes at every opportunity, and I find them ceedingly appreciative people to talk to. aps I know how to reach them, but at all , at home I have a reputation that I am of-that of being a negro preacher. y I had preached in a colored church, the conclusion of my sermon an old me up to me and said: 'Lord bless Southern Exposition. vo' don't talk like a white man; yo' a niggah.' If any man feels that it from his dignity to preach before ngregations, he had better ask the hether he is called of God to preach nt."-[State Chronicle.

Goldsboro, N. C., Jan. 5th, 1891. Prof. E. A. Johnson, Raleigh, N. C.: The subjects treated are indeed timely, the arrangement admirable and the treatment cogent. The book is a negro gem. Such a production has long been needed. It should find its way into the hands of our teachers, as well as into the libraries of all our homes. Very E. E. SMITH, Ex-Minister to Liberia.

A New Book Which Will Do Credit to the Colored People.

It is a splendid book entitled "A School His tory of the Negro Race in America." It covers the time from 1619 to 1890, and includes a short introduction as to the origin of the race, and a sketch of Liberia. The book contains 192 pages Rutherford, Cleveland and Gaston counties It is the only work of the kind yet produced, recently voted against the manufacture and and is as creditable as anything of its character

It is a most creditable work and deserves a This is a novel production and fills a long feit grant license for the sale of liquors in their want. There is no question about it, too little

TO DANCE BEFORE THE QUEEN.

New York, Oct. 5.- Fashionable circles in this city are much exercised as to the identity Walker recently did business, under the name of four pretty American girls who have ar rived in London to dance a minuet before the Queen. Their chaperon refuses to give their names, but says they are well known in the About 5,000 pair of pants, cut out but not best New York society. A picture, however, made up; about fourteen coats, one lot of is printed in the October number of the New buckles, buttons and thread; one lot of piece York and Paris Young Ladies' Fashion Bazar, entitled "Pretty Girls Learning to Dance the one lot of tables, one copy press, one clock, one Minuet," which gives some clew to their idenmirror, one lot of wrapping paper and one tity. Society here also is interested in the showcase. Any or all of the above personal fact that each of the four Americans is to wear a dress similar to the one illustrated and marked No. 8 in the colored plates of the magazine, which has partly revealed their personality and set fashionable circles agog. The young ladies have been practicing the minuet for eight months before venturing to ask the privilege, which has been granted, of dancing before Her Majesty.

The New York and Paris Young Ladies' Fashion Bazar is for sale by all newsdealers. It will also be sent, postage prepaid, for 25 cents per single copy. The subscription price is $3 per year. GEORGE MUNRO,
